

E- Assessment Question

Supporting 21st Century Assessment

Marty n Roads

13th March 2008

MREducational Consultants

The Drivers

- Flexibility
 - Personalised learning
 - QCF
 - Diplomas
- Technology
 - Mobility
 - Innovation
 - Efficiency
- Reliability

MREducational Consultants

Supporting 21st Century Assessment

- Barriers to adoption:
 - Not technical
 - Not connectivity
 - Not policy
- Cultural and people

MREducational Consultants

The Drivers – cont.

- Engagement
 - Media of choice for young people
 - Design
 - Accessibility
- Improving standards
-
-
-
- Cost savings

MREducational Consultants

Removing the barriers

- Work being undertaken by various agencies:
 - Becta
 - QCA
 - QIA
 - JISC
 - LLUK

MREducational Consultants

Guide to effective practice

MREducational Consultants

Key Projects

- e-Assessment – Guide to effective practice
- efutures website
- LLUK e-assessment CPD units

MREducational Consultants

Guide to effective practice

- Covers e-testing and e-portfolios
- Available in print
- Available on line in full and in sections
- Case studies
- Updated

MREducational Consultants

E-futures

- Developed by QCA NI
- Online resource at www.efutures.org
- Complements the Guide
- Continuously updated
- Latest content:
 - New and updated case studies
 - Details of AB contacts for e-assessment
 - Proposed toolkit for 2008/9

MREducational Consultants

LLUK CDP Units

- Created to match the Guide
- Within the QCF and part of the suite of teacher qualifications
- Currently cover e-testing
- Details and content on www.efutures.org
- First AB currently applying for approval

MREducational Consultants